POCSO COMMITTEE (2026-27)

A POCSO Committee (Protection of Children from Sexual Offences) in a school is a dedicated body responsible for ensuring a safe and secure environment for all students by protecting them from sexual abuse, harassment, and exploitation. Based on the provided information, its primary functions and objectives include:

Primary Functions

- Awareness and Education: Conducting regular workshops, seminars, and training sessions for students, staff, and parents to recognize signs of abuse and understand the POCSO Act. This includes teaching children about "good touch" and "bad touch".
- Complaint Handling: Acting as a designated body to receive, investigate, and address complaints related to child sexual abuse in a time-bound and confidential manner.
- Safety and Surveillance: Implementing security measures like CCTV cameras in strategic school areas, which are often monitored by the head of the institute.
- Support and Counseling: Providing emotional and psychological support to victims through school counselors and facilitating rehabilitation.
- Self-Defense Training: Organizing regular programs like Karate or Taekwondo to boost students' confidence and provide them with self-defense skills.
- Collaboration: Working with external agencies such as the police, Child Welfare Committees, and NGOs to ensure justice and comprehensive support for victims.
